 - Increased balance and control to sustain advanced lines of classical ballet.
 - Center-of-weight shift and weight transfer phrases in the center floor work.
 - Advanced turning movements in center pirouette combinations.
 - Speed, agility, clarity, ballon and precision in petite allegro movements.
 - Power, dynamics, ballon, expansiveness, flow and grace in grand allegro phrases.
 - Developing artistry masks connecting and preoperational steps as part of the dance phrase.

C. Performance Expectations and Outcomes

- Knowledge of classical content and vocabulary as required in course content.
- Established dynamic qualities in movements at the barre, example as frappe to developpe
- Musicality and breath in the use of tempo, rhythm and phrasing.

- Spatial clarity and articulation of the defined classical directions of the body throughout course content.
- Synthesis and execution of well formed phrases and classroom center combinations.
- Performance reflecting growth in movement/expressive capabilities.
- Participation in a graded solo jury requiring application of course movement material.
